As a participant of the 2024 Art on Main, I agree to:

- Submit artist information form via mail or online form with three images of your art and one of booth set-up displaying art by February 16. Returning artists who have exhibited at least two previous years will not be asked to submit new images with the 2024 application form.
- Mail booth fee of $100 payable to Canton Main Street.
- Email images to asampson@cantonillinois.org or upload with online form. Allow images to be used in promotional materials.
- Provide a biography for marketing purposes via mail or upload with online form.
- Be present with my work on Saturday, June 1 from 9 a.m. – 4:30 p.m., and Sunday, June 2 from 9 a.m. – 3 p.m. No early tear down.
- Abide by the participation policies.
- Bear all risk and expenses for any damage, loss, or theft of my artwork or other personal property or injury to my person regardless of cause. I also assume all risk and liability for claims alleging copyright or trademark infringement or the misappropriation of images or ideas.

PARTICIPATION POLICIES:

- Artwork must be original. Commercial molds and kits may not be used.
- Reproductions must be clearly identified. No more than 20% of display may be devoted to reproductions. All work must be for sale.
- Calendars, coloring books, food items, t-shirts, or velvet prints are not allowed under these policies. Ceramics made from commercial molds, commercially fabricated jewelry forms and settings, and items made from hobby store kits are also not acceptable.
- Art on Main committee will monitor booths during the weekend. If rules have not been followed, artists may be asked to leave. The committee's judgment is final and no refunds will be given.
- No refunds for cancellations will be given.
- Artists must be present both days. No agents allowed.
- Artists should plan to exhibit rain or shine.
- Pets are allowed, but must be leashed.
