
WALKING HISTORY TOUR

Jack and Bill's

Jack and Bill's was a men's clothing store owned by Jack Walker and Bill Ritchey. Originally opened on the east side of the square in 1952, they moved to this location in 1959. This was the former location of Dave and Dick and Divilbliss Men's Clothing Store.

At their peak, they offered the largest line of Levis Jeans in the Central Illinois Area. They also opened a store in Mattoon IL, which is still in operation from a prior store employee. Jack and Bill sold the store to Anthony Rolando in 1986, and Tony changed its name to Anthony's Men's Wear. He closed the store in 2001.
